

Please put the consumer first. The Wisconsin no-call list is working very well to protect consumers from unwanted phone intrusions. The huge number of citizens who have placed their names on the no call list is testimony to the huge desire from the public to be protected from unwanted commercial phone calls.